Sale High School

The school blazer must be worn at all times. A dark suitable school coat, preferably with a hood is required. All students need a large waterproof bag to carry equipment books/kit etc. Lockers are available to hire at a small cost for year 7. A drawstring navy bag with a logo is also available for PE kit.

Sale High School does not have a school scarf. Students may wear a dark blue or black scarf on their way to and from school.

Suitable black shoes (see the school website: Uniform) for further guidance. No trainers or pumps are permitted.

Further guidance on uniform and school rules regards behaviour, standards and guidelines on what is not permitted can be found on the school website www.salehighschool.org.uk

If you have any queries, or are unsure of anything, please contact the school office who will be happy to advise you.

For all subjects, students will need:

Pens, pencils, ruler eraser, (all in a pencil case)

Pencil crayons or felt tips, a pencil sharpener

Maths: a calculator

English: biro/ink pen and a pocket dictionary (can be bought from school)

Languages: a French/Spanish dictionary (dependent upon language taken from year 7) September 2018 cohort will take French.

KS3 students: reading book

Please contact the school regards purchase of pocket dictionaries (English and French) and pencil cases with above items are available to buy from school (email info@salehighschool.org.uk for further information)
